

These Terms and Conditions apply to the 2nd Grace Dashain Cup 2026 (“Event”), organized by Gurkhali FC and scheduled to be held on Saturday, 3 October 2026, at Richardson Park, Darwin, Northern Territory, Australia. These Terms and the Dashain Cup 2026 Official Rulebook together constitute the agreement between the Committee and each participating team in connection with the Event. The applicable documents are Terms and Conditions – Version 1.0, dated 10 September 2026, and Official Rulebook – Version 1.0, dated 10 September 2026. By registering for and participating in the Event, each participating team confirms that it has read, understood and agrees to be bound by these Terms and the Official Rulebook.

1. Eligibility and Registration

1.1 Registration Deadline

Teams must complete their registration and submit all required information by the registration deadline specified by the Committee. Registration is not considered confirmed until the applicable entry fee has been received in full and the Committee has confirmed the team’s place in writing

1.2 Identification

Each participating team is responsible for providing accurate and complete identification details for all registered players and team officials. The Committee may require valid photographic identification to verify the identity and eligibility of any player. For junior players, the Committee may also require documentary evidence of date of birth to confirm their age and eligibility for the relevant competition.

The Committee reserves the right to request identification at any time before or during the Event. If satisfactory identification is not produced when requested, the Committee may refuse to allow the player to take the field. Any decision made by the Committee regarding identification and player eligibility will apply for the purposes of the Event.

1.3 No Additions on the Day

No player may be added to a team’s registered squad on the tournament day of the Event. All players must be registered and approved by the Committee prior to the registration deadline. Late registrations, player substitutions or additions on the day of the Event will not be permitted

This clause is to be read together with Clause 4.4 of the Official Rulebook, and both documents shall be interpreted consistently in relation to player additions and registrations.

2. Fees

2.1 Entry Fees – Non-Refundable

All entry fees paid to the Committee are non-refundable. This applies where a team withdraws from the Event, fails to attend, is disqualified, or is removed from the Event for any reason.

Notwithstanding the above, if the Committee cancels the Event, the Committee may, at its absolute discretion, determine whether to refund all or part of any entry fee paid by a participating team.

3. Fixtures and Rules

3.1 Committee May Amend

The Committee may amend or vary the Event arrangements where reasonably necessary due to weather, venue availability, safety, the number of entries received, or scheduling requirements. The Committee will notify participating teams of any material changes as soon as reasonably practicable.

3.2 Referee Decisions Final

Referee decisions made during a match in relation to matters of play are final and must be respected by all participating players and teams.

Any administrative, disciplinary or other matters arising in connection with the Event will be considered and determined by the Committee in accordance with the Dashain Cup 2026 Official Rulebook and its applicable dispute procedures.

4. Conduct and Behaviour

4.1 Participant Conduct

All participants must conduct themselves with respect, fairness and good sportsmanship throughout the Event. This requirement applies to all players, team officials, supporters and guests and includes their conduct towards referees, Committees, other teams, players, volunteers and members of the public.

4.2 Misconduct

Misconduct by a player, team official, team or supporter may result in disciplinary action by the Committee. Depending on the nature and seriousness of the conduct, the sanctions may include a warning, temporary dismissal, sending off, suspension, forfeiture of a match, or removal from the Event.

Any disciplinary action will be determined by the Committee in accordance with the Dashain Cup 2026 Official Rulebook, taking into account the circumstances and seriousness of the misconduct.

4.3 Team Responsibility

Each participating team is responsible for the conduct and behaviour of its players, team officials, supporters and guests throughout the Event, including at the tournament venue.

The Committee reserves the right to require any player, team official, supporter, guest or other person whose conduct is considered inappropriate, disruptive, unsafe or contrary to these Terms and Conditions or the Official Rulebook to leave the venue immediately.

Failure to comply with a direction to leave may result in further disciplinary action against the individual and/or the relevant team in accordance with the Dashain Cup 2026 Official Rulebook.

5. Risk, Liability, and Indemnity

5.1 Participation at Own Risk

Participation in the Event involves inherent risks, including but not limited to collision and physical contact with other players; sprains, strains, fractures and other soft-tissue or bone injuries; head injuries and concussion; heat-related illness and dehydration arising from Northern Territory conditions; and injuries resulting from uneven ground or contact with equipment or other objects.

By participating in the Event, each player, team official and other participant acknowledges these risks and voluntarily accepts them. Participants are responsible for taking reasonable care of their own health and safety and should not participate if they are not physically fit or medically able to do so.

5.2 Exclusion of Liability

5.2.1 non-excludable rights

Nothing in these Terms and Conditions is intended to exclude, restrict or modify any right, remedy, guarantee, warranty, condition or liability that cannot lawfully be excluded, restricted or modified under applicable Australian law.

5.2.2 Death and personal injury

To the extent permitted by applicable law, including any applicable provisions relating to recreational services, the Committee excludes liability for death or physical or mental injury suffered by a participant in connection with participation in the Event, including injury arising from the risks identified in Clause 5.1.

5.2.3 Property damage and other loss

To the extent permitted by law, the Committee is not liable for loss of or damage to personal property, equipment, clothing or other belongings, or for other loss or expense suffered by a participant in connection with the Event, except to the extent that such liability cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.

Nothing in this Clause affects any liability that the Committee is prohibited by law from excluding or limiting.

5.3 Release and Indemnity

5.3.1 Protected Persons

For the purposes of this clause, “Protected Persons” means Gurkhali FC, each member of its Executive Committee and committee, officer, official, referee, volunteer, agent and contractor, acting in connection with the Event.

5.3.2 Release

To the extent permitted by law, each participant releases the Protected Persons from claims arising out of or in connection with the participant’s attendance at or participation in the Event, including claims arising from the risks identified in Clause 5.1, except to the extent that the claim relates to liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or released.

5.3.3 Indemnity

To the extent permitted by law, each participant indemnifies and holds harmless the Protected Persons from claims, losses, liabilities, costs and expenses arising from the participant’s negligent, unlawful or wilful acts or omissions, or from any breach by the participant of these Terms and Conditions or the Official Rulebook.

5.3.4 Acceptance on Behalf of Protected Persons

Gurkhali FC accepts the benefit of this release and indemnity on its own behalf and on behalf of each of the Protected Persons individually, to the extent permitted by law.

5.3.5 Participants Under 18

This clause does not apply to any player under 18 years of age. The participation, consent, release and indemnity arrangements applicable to junior players are dealt with separately under the Junior Consent Arrangements in Part D.

5.4 Insurance

The Committee holds public liability insurance in connection with the Event. This insurance does not provide personal accident, injury or medical insurance cover for participating teams, players, team officials or other participants.

Each participating team is responsible for arranging and maintaining its own appropriate insurance cover, including personal accident and injury cover for its players and officials, for the duration of the Event.

By registering for the Event, each team warrants that it has arranged and will maintain appropriate insurance cover for its participation and will provide evidence of that cover to the Committee upon request.

5.5 By registering, the Team confirms that it has had the opportunity to review the risks and obtain independent advice before accepting these Terms.

6. Authority of the Committee

6.1 The Committee retains the right to refuse or cancel registration, to remove participants or teams from the Event, and to make any decisions necessary for the fair and safe conduct of the Event.

6.2 Power to amend the Terms Amend An unrestricted power to change the Terms at any time is vulnerable to challenge. Limit the power to changes reasonably necessary for safety, venue or scheduling reasons, require notice to teams, and provide that a team may withdraw and receive a refund of its entry fee if a change is materially detrimental to it.

7. Governing Law

7.1 These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of the Northern Territory of Australia.

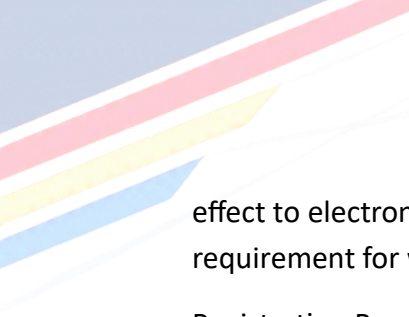

7.2 Jurisdiction

These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of the Northern Territory of Australia. The parties submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Northern Territory of Australia and any court hearing appeals from those courts.

Declaration

Electronic Acceptance

By submitting the registration and selecting the applicable acceptance option, the person completing the registration confirms the Team's acceptance of these Terms and Conditions and the Official Rulebook. The agreement is formed in accordance with ordinary principles of contract law. The Electronic Transactions (Northern Territory) Act 2000 operates to give legal effect to electronic communications and acceptance where applicable, including where a requirement for writing or signature is satisfied electronically.

Registration Records

The Committee will retain the registration record for each participating Team, including the date and time of submission and the version and date of the Terms and Conditions and Official Rulebook provided to the Team at the time of registration. These records may be relied upon by the Committee as evidence of the Team's acceptance of the applicable documents.
